Draft Regulations attended to by the Law Commissioner.

78. Mr. A. Narayana Menon (Vyttila).—Will the Government be pleased to state,—

(a) (i) the names of the Bills drafted by the Law Commissioner and his assistants and submitted to the Government;

(ii) have they been scrutinised by the Government;

(iii) how many are ready for publication;

(b) (i) are any more Bills directed to be drafted by them;

(ii) if so, what are the subjects on which the drafting of Bills is pending with the body;

(iii) are they directed to work at the consolidation of Regulations that have undergone amendments;

(c) (i) does the Government Advocate or his Assistants attend to similar works;

(ii) if so, what are the Bills that each of them is engaged in drafting;

(iii) does work of consolidation come within the scope of such duties?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar (Secretary to Government).—

(a) (i) A list of the draft Regulations prepared by the Law Commissioner and submitted to Government is appended. (Appendix I.)

(ii) They are being scrutinised.

(iii) Six Regulations have been published—5 on 7th November 1936 and 1 on 14th November 1936.

(iii) Yes.

(c) (i) Yes.

(ii) The Government Advocate has been asked to draft the Cochin Kuries Regulation Amendment Bill, the Cochin Maternity and Benefit Bill and the Panchayat Regulation Amendment Bill.

(iii) No.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—Do these officers attend to the collection and consolidation of the rules framed under the various Regulations?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar (Secretary to Government).—They have been asked to take up that work also and they are attending to it.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—Do the Government propose to extend the term of the office of the Commissioner?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar (Secretary to Government).—There is no such idea at present; but if there is any necessity Government will consider this question.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—Is it not a fact that all the major laws have been attended to and in view of this fact does the Government think it necessary to keep on such a heavy paid officer?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar (Secretary to Government).—The present term of the Law Commissioner expires in January and if the work is over by that time there will be no necessity to extend the term. The Law Commissioner has been asked to submit a report before the Christmas holidays.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—Have not all the major laws been attended to?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar (Secretary to Government).—I should say most.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—Which are the major laws that have not yet been attended to?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar (Secretary to Government).—That is exactly the information that has to be obtained from the Law Commissioner.

Mr. A. Narayana Menon (Vyttila).—Is not the consolidation work rather heavy?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar (Secretary to Government).—I do not understand what the Hon'ble Member means.

Mr. A. Narayana Menon (Vyttila).—Are there not Regulations containing various amendments? Will it not be heavy work to consolidate all these?

Mr. T. S. Narayana Ayyar (Secretary to Government).—Amendments have to be incorporated in the respective Regulations. The work of consolidation will be taken up immediately.

Furniture—Anjikaimal District Court.

79. Mr. A. V. Moothedan (Chalakkudi).—Will the Government be pleased to state:—
